Revelation

AND CONSECRATION

*Dear Father in heaven,
I present myself to You and I consecrate my life to you. Thank You for sending Jesus Christ to die on the cross for my sins and rise from the dead on the third day. I accept Him as my Savior and Lord. Jesus, come into my heart [spirit] by Your Holy Spirit, right now. Be the Lord and Redeemer of my life. Take control of my life, fill me with Your Holy Spirit, and make me holy according to Your sovereign plan. I ask You to reveal Yourself to me, the truths of Jesus Christ the Son of God, and what it means to me personally. I am trusting You, the Creator of all things, to lead me into all truth. I commit my life, spirit, soul, and body into Your keeping, and I thank You for what You are going to do in my life, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. (John 3:16)

And this is eternal life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent. (John 17:3)

“For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.” (Isaiah 9:6)

But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption. (1Corinthians 1:30)

Knowing that you were not redeemed with corruptible things, like silver or gold, from your aimless conduct received by tradition from your fathers, but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot. (1 Peter 1:18, 19)

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many. (Mark 10:45)

In whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace. (Ephesians 1:7)

When the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth His Son, made of a woman, made under the law, to redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. (Galatians 4:4, 5)

How much more shall the blood of Christ,
Who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And for this cause He is the Mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
(Hebrews 9:14, 15)

Christ our passover is sacrificed for us.
(1 Corinthians 5:7)

Prayer for the People

OF THIS COUNTRY

*Dear heavenly Father,
I come to You in the name of Jesus, asking Your blessing, love, and compassion on the people of this country. Touch the lives of the men, women, and children by Your Holy Spirit. Please provide for their every need. Help us to do all we can to be a blessing and help to this country in every possible way. Heal any hurt or pain they may have suffered. Touch their minds, hearts, and souls according to Your divine will and purpose and restore peace and comfort to each of them. Cause all of us to have love and understanding for one another and grant us peace in God. Help me and my brothers and sisters to have a deep and compassionate understanding for them, their culture, and country, in Jesus' name.*

“For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed, but My kindness shall not depart from you, nor shall My covenant of peace be removed,” says the Lord, who has mercy on you. (Isaiah 54:10)

Blessed be the Lord, for He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a strong city!
(Psalm 31:21)

For His merciful kindness is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever. Praise the Lord! (Psalm 117:2)

Let, I pray, Your merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to Your word to Your servant. (Psalm 119:76)

Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. (Psalm 107:19)

Guidance

FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT

*Dear God,
Guide my footsteps in Your Word and let no iniquity have dominion over me. Lead me by Your Holy Spirit. Enlighten my darkness. Cause me to walk in the right path for Your name's sake. Lead me in Your truth and teach me. Lord, You know my path and You know the path of those who fight against us. If necessary, redirect my steps in Your wisdom. Grant those in authority Your wisdom and guidance, Your knowledge for every battle. Cause them to know the right strategy. The Word says that if I ask anything according to Your will You hear me and that I have the petitions I ask of You. I thank You, in advance, for what You are doing and are going to do, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

David Asks for God's Direction

It happened after this that David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up to any of the cities of Judah?" And the Lord said to him, "Go up." David said, "Where shall I go up?" And He said, "To Hebron." So David went up there, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the widow of Nabal the Carmelite. And David brought up the men who were with him, every man with his household. So they dwelt in the cities of Hebron. Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul." So David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead, and said to them, "You are blessed of the Lord, for you have shown this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him.

And now may the Lord show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. And now may the Lord show kindness and truth to you. I also will repay you this kindness, because you have done this thing. (2 Samuel 2:1-7)

Another King Seeks God's Direction

Now three years passed without war between Syria and Israel. Then it came to pass, in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went down to visit the king of Israel. And the king of Israel said to his servants, "Do you know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, but we hesitate to take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?" So he said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." Also Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire for the word of the Lord today." Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to fight, or shall I refrain?" So they said, "Go up, for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king." And Jehoshaphat said, "Is there not still a prophet of the Lord here, that we may inquire of Him?" So the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is still one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the Lord; but I hate him, because he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil." And Jehoshaphat said, "Let not the king say such things!" Then the king of Israel called an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah the son of Imlah quickly!" The king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, at a threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them. Now Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made horns of iron for himself; and he said, "Thus says the Lord: 'With these you shall gore the Syrians until they are destroyed.'" And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead and prosper, for the Lord will deliver it into the king's hand." Then the messenger who had gone to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Now listen, the words of the prophets with one accord encourage the king. Please, let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak encouragement." And Micaiah said, "As the Lord lives, whatever the Lord says to me, that I will speak." (1 Kings 22: 1-14)

However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.

(John 16:13)

For this is God, our God forever and ever; He will be our guide even to death.

(Psalm 48:14)

You will guide me with Your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

(Psalm 73:24)

In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. (Proverbs 3:6)

A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord directs his steps. (Proverbs 16:9)

I will bring the blind by a way they did not know; I will lead them in paths they have not known. I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do for them, and not forsake them. (Isaiah 42:16)

Your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," whenever you turn to the right hand or whenever you turn to the left. (Isaiah 30:21)

The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in drought, and strengthen your bones; you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters do not fail. (Isaiah 58:11)

He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. (Psalm 23:3)

They shall neither hunger nor thirst, neither heat nor sun shall strike them; for He Who has mercy on them will lead them, even by the springs of water He will guide them. (Isaiah 49:10)

Divine Protection

AT ALL TIMES

*Dear Heavenly Father,
I ask for Your divine protection for me, my brothers and sisters, and for all You have entrusted in my/our care. Send Your army of angels and chariots of fire with us into battle. Protect me/us in battle, in Jesus' name. You hold the heavens and the earth in Your hands, and even if the earth were removed and the mountains be cast into the sea, I will not fear for You are with me. There is nothing too hard for You. If I dwell in the secret place of the Most High, I abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Under Your shadow I take refuge.
Hide me in Your secret place. Hide us under the shadow of Your wings. I commit myself/us to into Your care, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

God Signals David: More Guidance

Now when the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to search for David. And David heard of it and went down to the stronghold. The Philistines also went and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim. So David inquired of the Lord, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hand?" And the Lord said to David, "Go up, for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into your hand." So David went to Baal Perazim, and David defeated them there; and he said, "The Lord has broken through my enemies before me, like a breakthrough of water." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim. And they left their images there, and David and his men carried them away. Then the Philistines went up once again and deployed themselves in the Valley of Rephaim. Therefore David inquired of the Lord, and He said, “You shall not go up; circle around behind them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

And it shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, then you shall advance quickly. For then the Lord will go out before you to strike the camp of the Philistines.” And David did so, as the Lord commanded him; and he drove back the Philistines from Geba as far as Gezer.

(2 Samuel 5:17-25)

The Deep Sleep of the Lord

Then David answered, and said to Ahimelech the Hittite and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother of Joab, saying, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?" And Abishai said, "I will go down with you." So David and Abishai came to the people by night; and there Saul lay sleeping within the camp, with his spear stuck in the ground by his head. And Abner and the people lay all around him. Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore, please, let me strike him at once with the spear, right to the earth; and I will not have to strike him a second time!" And David said to Abishai, "Do not destroy him; for who can stretch out his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless?" David said furthermore, "As the Lord lives, the Lord shall strike him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall go out to battle and perish. The Lord forbid that I should stretch out my hand against the Lord's anointed. But please, take now the spear and the jug of water that are by his head, and let us go.” So David took the spear and the jug of water by Saul’s head, and they got away; and no man saw it or knew it or awoke. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them.

(1 Samuel 26:6-12)

God Causes the Enemy to Fear

Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, “Why are we sitting here until we die? If we say, ‘We will enter the city,’ the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also.

Now therefore, come, let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die.” And they rose at twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they had come to the outskirts of the Syrian camp, to their surprise no one was there. For the Lord had caused the army of the Syrians to hear the noise of chariots and the noise of horses—the noise of a great army; so they said to one another, “Look, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians to attack us!” Therefore they arose and fled at twilight, and left the camp intact—their tents, their horses, and their donkeys—and they fled for their lives. And when these lepers came to the outskirts of the camp, they went into one tent and ate and drank, and carried from it silver and gold and clothing, and went and hid them; then they came back and entered another tent, and carried some from there also, and went and hid it. Then they said to one another, “We are not doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we remain silent. If we wait until morning light, some punishment will come upon us. Now therefore, come, let us go and tell the king's household." So they went and called to the gatekeepers of the city, and told them, saying, "We went to the Syrian camp, and surprisingly no one was there, not a human sound—only horses and donkeys tied, and the tents intact." And the gatekeepers called out, and they told it to the king's household inside. (2 Kings 7:3-11)

I will both lie down in peace, and sleep;
For You alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety. (Psalm 4:8)

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord,
"He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in Him I will trust." He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. No evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling;

(Psalm 91:1, 2, 4, 10)

But whoever listens to me will dwell safely, and will be secure, without fear of evil. (Proverbs 1:33)

God, Go with Us!

WISDOM IN BATTLE

*Lord God,
I thank You for all You have done for me, my brothers and sisters, and for the men, women, and children You have entrusted to our care.
I praise You for Your kindness and mercy for us.
You alone possess all power in heaven and in earth, and there is nothing too hard for You. To You belongs all might and power. I come to You in Jesus' name, Father, and I ask You to overthrow and overturn evil plans. Fight and defeat them that fight against us. Let the net which they have hidden catch them. Kings have asked that You fight for them, drive their enemies backward, and put them to shame and confusion. You are fair and good to all who call upon You. I ask help for us all, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

And Asa cried out to the Lord his God, and said, "Lord, it is nothing for You to help, whether with many or with those who have no power; help us, O Lord our God, for we rest on You, and in Your name we go against this multitude. O Lord, You are our God; do not let man prevail against You!" (2 Chronicles 14:11)

Then Jerubbaal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and encamped beside the well of Harod, so that the camp of the Midianites was on the north side of them by the hill of Moreh in the valley And the Lord said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for Me to give the Midianites into their hands, lest Israel claim glory for itself against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' Now therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and afraid, let him turn and depart at once from Mount Gilead.' " And twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained. But the Lord said to Gideon, "The people are still too many; bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. Then it will be, that of whom I say to you, 'This one shall go with you,' the same shall go with you; and of whomever I say to you, 'This one shall not go with you,' the same shall not go." So he brought the people down to the water. And the Lord said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps from the water with his tongue, as a dog laps, you shall set apart by himself; likewise everyone who gets down on his knees to drink." And the number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water. Then the Lord said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped I will save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, every man to his place." (Judges 7:1-7)

Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all. (Psalm 34:19)

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, You will revive me; You will stretch out Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me. (Psalm 138:7)

Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. (Psalm 107:19)

Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; For the Lord upholds him with His hand. But the salvation of the righteous is from the Lord; He is their strength in the time of trouble. (Psalm 37:24, 39)

Indeed they shall surely assemble, but not because of Me. Whoever assembles against you shall fall for your sake. No weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue which rises against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the Lord, and their righteousness is from Me," says the Lord. (Isaiah 54:15, 17)

The Lord will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face; they shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways. (Deuteronomy 28:7)

For the Lord your God is He who goes with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.
(Deuteronomy 20:4)

Through God we will do valiantly, for it is He who shall tread down our enemies.
(Psalm 60:12)

Do not be afraid of sudden terror, Nor of trouble from the wicked when it comes;
For the Lord will be your confidence, and will keep your foot from being caught.
(Proverbs 3:25,26)

Behold, all those who were incensed against you shall be ashamed and disgraced; they shall be as nothing, and those who strive with you shall perish. You shall seek them and not find them—those who contended with you. Those who war against you shall be as nothing, as a nonexistent thing. (Isaiah 41:11,12)

David's Enemies

ARE CONFUSED

*Dear heavenly Father,
I ask You, Father, to confuse our enemies in the name of Jesus. Grant us Your wisdom—not the wisdom of this world, but that which comes only from You. Bring to shame and confusion those that devise our hurt. Father, You have spoken to many. You have spoken to kings and can speak to anyone, according to Your will. Cause the enemy to be turned back. Foil their plans and strategies. Make seeing eyes blind. You know their plans and there is nothing that is hid from You. Let them fall into their own nets and traps. I thank You for Your manifest glory and I praise Your holy name, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

~ Scriptural Confirmation ~

Let those be put to shame and brought to dishonor Who seek after my life; let those be turned back and brought to confusion who plot my hurt. (Psalm 35:4)

God Speaks to People

Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to dwell there, for the famine was severe in the land. And it came to pass, when he was close to entering Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "Indeed I know that you are a woman of beautiful countenance. Therefore it will happen, when the Egyptians see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife'; and they will kill me, but they will let you live. Please say you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that I may live because of you." (Genesis 12:10-13)

Another time:

And Abraham journeyed from there to the South, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, and stayed in Gerar. Now Abraham said of Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." And Abimelech king of Gerar sent and took Sarah. But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, "Indeed you are a dead man because of the woman whom you have taken, for she is a man's wife." But Abimelech had not come near her; and he said, "Lord, will You slay a righteous nation also? Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister'? And she, even she herself said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and innocence of my hands I have done this." And God said to him in a dream, "Yes, I know that you did this in the integrity of your heart. For I also withheld you from sinning against Me; therefore I did not let you touch her.

Now therefore, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you shall live. But if you do not restore her, know that you shall surely die, you and all who are yours.

(Genesis 20:1-7)

In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried out to my God; He heard my voice from His temple, and my cry came before Him, even to His ears. Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken, because He was angry. Smoke went up from His nostrils, and devouring fire from His mouth; coals were kindled by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down with darkness under His feet. And He rode upon a cherub, and flew; He flew upon the wings of the wind. He made darkness His secret place; His canopy around Him was dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. From the brightness before Him, His thick clouds passed with hailstones and coals of fire. The Lord thundered from heaven, and the Most High uttered His voice, hailstones and coals of fire. He sent out His arrows and scattered the foe, lightnings in abundance, and He vanquished them.

(Psalm 18:6-4)

But if you go, be gone! Be strong in battle! Even so, God shall make you fall before the enemy; for God has power to help and to overthrow. (2 Chronicles 25:8)

Strategy

WISDOM AND KNOWLEDGE

*Oh Lord God,
I praise You that nothing is hidden from You.
There is no one who knows what You know unless You reveal it. Please grant us Your grace and give us revelations, wisdom, and knowledge by the Holy Spirit. Reveal plans of the enemy.
Grant knowledge and wisdom to come to the minds of our intelligence. Reveal to me what I need to know. Father, please turn, overthrow, overturn, and cause us to escape every trap.
Guide our steps when we don't know which way to go. We give You the glory and praise for all You have done and for what You are going to do.
We ask these things based on Your promises in the Word, and rely on You and Your power, and give You all the glory, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

God Revealed the Enemy's Plan

Now the king of Syria was making war against Israel; and he consulted with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place." And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you do not pass this place, for the Syrians are coming down there." Then the king of Israel sent someone to the place of which the man of God had told him. Thus he warned him, and he was watchful there, not just once or twice. Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled by this thing; and he called his servants and said to them, "Will you not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?" [he thought there was a spy in his camp.] And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet, who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.” (2 Kings 6:8-12)

God Still Reveals Secrets

However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. (John 16:13)

Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know. (Jeremiah 33:3)

At that time Jesus answered and said, “I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent and have revealed them to babes.” (Matthew 11:25)

The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him, and He will show them His covenant. (Psalm 24:14)

Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, Who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God. (I Corinthians 4:5)

Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts, and in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom. (Psalm 51:6)

But God has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. (1 Corinthians 2:10)

The secret of the Lord is with those who fear Him, and He will show them His covenant. (Psalm 25:14)

Provision

FOR OUR NEEDS

*Dear Heavenly Father,
I ask for You to provide for me and others around me, in Jesus' name. Lord, to You do we come for help. We need You, Lord, and we look to You, in Jesus' name. We know that in the Word, You have brought miraculous provision. We believe You are limitless in power. You provided manna in the desert when You led Your children out of Egypt. Jesus fed a multitude with a few loaves and fishes. You can provide for all. I believe that You are true and Your Word is true. Your Word says that You will provide for all of our needs according to Your riches in glory by Christ Jesus. I rest my faith in You, Your integrity, and in the integrity of the Scriptures, right now and I thank You for what You are going to do, in Jesus' name. Amen.*

A Psalm of David. The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. (Psalm 23:1, 5)

You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, Who has dealt wondrously with you; And My people shall never be put to shame. (Joel 2:26)

Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, "What shall we eat?" or "What shall we drink?" or "What shall we wear?" For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. (Matthew 6:25, 30, 31, 32)

Heal the Injured

AND THE SICK

Dear God,

I ask that You consider the needs of the sick and injured. Please breathe Your breath of life into me, and my suffering friend. You heal the sick and raise the dead. Miracles exist today. You are a present help in the time of trouble. Father, grant healing and cause the healing power of Jesus to fill my/their body, mind, soul, and spirit. You are Jehovah Rapha [the Lord that heals] and I ask for healing in Jesus' name. Thank You, God, that You are limitless in power and might. Thank You for touching me and my friend by Your Spirit, right now. I thank You that You are true and Your Word is true. I rest my faith on You, Your power, and on Your Word and promises. Thank You for what You are going to do, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases, Who redeems your life from destruction, Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies, Who satisfies your mouth with good things, and that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. (Psalm 103:3-5)

He sent His word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. (Psalm 107:20)

For they are life to those who find them, and health to all their flesh. (Proverbs 4:22)

So you shall serve the Lord your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you. (Exodus 23:25)

...If you diligently heed the voice of the Lord your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the Lord who heals you. (Exodus 15:26)

Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth.
(Jeremiah 33:6)

...And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you. Arise and make your bed." And he arose immediately. And when He had called His twelve disciples to Him, He gave them power over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all kinds of sickness and all kinds of disease. (Matthew 10:1)

Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. Freely you have received, freely give. (Matthew 10:8)

The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, (Luke 4:18)

Comfort and Heal

HEARTS AND MINDS

*Heavenly Father,
I can't handle this situation. Touch my mind by Your Holy Spirit, Father, in Jesus' name. I give my mind and emotions to You, right now. Please heal and comfort my mind and heart and soul. Hold me up above these things I am experiencing, as I cannot handle them in my own strength. The Scriptures tell us to cast our cares totally on You and to trust in You for every need. I turn all of this pain and turmoil over to You totally right now, and I am going to trust in Your help for all of this. I commit all of this to You right now.
Grant supernatural peace by Your Holy Spirit, in Jesus' name. I rest my faith in Your promises.
I will now thank You in faith for what You are doing.*

By this I know that You are well pleased with me, because my enemy does not triumph over me. (Psalm 41:11)

Then they cried out to the Lord in their trouble, and He saved them out of their distresses. (Psalm 107:19)

The righteous is delivered from trouble, and it comes to the wicked instead. (Proverbs 11:8)

The wicked is ensnared by the transgression of his lips, but the righteous will come through trouble. (Proverbs 12:13)

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. (Jeremiah 29:11)

Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, streaming to the goodness of the Lord— for wheat and new wine and oil, for the young of the flock and the herd; their souls shall be like a well-watered garden, and they shall sorrow no more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old, together; for I will turn their mourning to joy, will comfort them, and make them rejoice rather than sorrow.

(Jeremiah 31:12, 13)

The Lord also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

(Psalm 9:9)

For He has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; nor has He hidden His face from Him; but when He cried to Him, He heard. (Psalm 22:24)

Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; wait, I say, on the Lord! (Psalm 27:10,14)

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song for Alamoth. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, even though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; though its waters roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah (Psalm 46:1-3)

O Lord, my strength and my fortress, my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come to You from the ends of the earth and say, "Surely our fathers have inherited lies, worthlessness and unprofitable things. (Jeremiah 16:19)

Comfort in Suffering

PEACE OF MIND AND HEART

*Dear Lord God,
Hold me up above these circumstances, Lord. I ask You to hide me under the shadow of Your wings and in Your high tower. You are El Shaddai, the All-sufficient One. Father, Your Word tells those who suffer to commit themselves and their souls to You. Even Jesus from the cross committed His spirit into Your hands. I right now place my spirit, soul, mind, and body into Your hands. You alone are God. You alone can heal me. You are the resurrection and the Life. If any man believe in You, Jesus, though He were dead yet shall he live...and any man that lives and believes in You shall never die.
I trust You to be my healer, comforter, and strength, and ask for it in Jesus' name. Thank You for what You are going to do.*

I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and none will make you afraid; I will rid the land of evil beasts, and the sword will not go through your land. (Leviticus 26:6)

The Lord will give strength to His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace. (Psalm 29:11)

Great peace have those who love Your law, and nothing causes them to stumble. (Psalm 119:165)

Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust and not be afraid; for Yah, the Lord, is my strength and song; He also has become my salvation. (Isaiah 12:2)

He gives power to the weak, and to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall, but those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint. (Isaiah 40:29-31)

And He said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness." Therefore most gladly I will rather boast in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart, all you who hope in the Lord. (Psalm 31:24)

O God, You are more awesome than Your holy places. The God of Israel is He who gives strength and power to His people. Blessed be God! (Psalm 68:35)

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are fearful-hearted, "Be strong, do not fear! Behold, your God will come with vengeance, With the recompense of God; He will come and save you."

(Isaiah 35:3, 4)

But the Lord will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel. (Joel 3:16)

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. (2 Timothy 1:7)

Help for a Wounded

FRIEND

*Lord Jesus,
Why did this happen to my friend and not me?
Please heal my heart and remove all sorrow and condemnation from me. You are able to remove these guilty feelings from me. Rather, direct my feelings toward compassion and prayer for others, and for the men, women, and children who are in need around me. Although I do not understand what is going on fully, I know You know all things, and I commit it all into Your hands. I also commit to You the body, mind, soul, and spirit of my friend. Let Your healing power and life fill his/her body in Jesus' name.
Let Your glory be seen. Surround us all with Your grace. Thank You, for Your help, kindness, and tender mercies toward us.*

So we may boldly say: “The Lord is my helper; I will not fear. What can man do to me?” (Hebrews 13:6)

The Lord is on my side; I will not fear. What can man do to me? (Psalm 118:6)

So you shall serve the Lord your God, and He will bless your bread and your water. And I will take sickness away from the midst of you. (Exodus 23:25)

“...If you diligently heed the voice of the Lord your God and do what is right in His sight, give ear to His commandments and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians. For I am the Lord who heals you.” (Exodus 15:26)

He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress; my God, in Him I will trust." Surely He shall deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the perilous pestilence. He shall cover you with His feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler. You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day, nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that lays waste at noonday. A thousand may fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near you. Only with your eyes shall you look, and see the reward of the wicked. Because you have made the Lord, who is my refuge, even the Most High, your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, nor shall any plague come near your dwelling; for He shall give His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.

(Psalm 91:1-11)

Who forgives all your iniquities, Who heals all your diseases. (Psalm 103:3)

The Lord will strengthen him on his bed of illness; You will sustain him on his sickbed. (Psalm 41:3)

“Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, And the young men and the old, together; for I will turn their mourning to joy, will comfort them, and make them rejoice rather than sorrow.”

(Jeremiah 31:13).
